Bau Thau

Located in the serene province of Krabi, you will be enchanted by the peaceful nature as if you were totally cut off from the boredom of civilization.

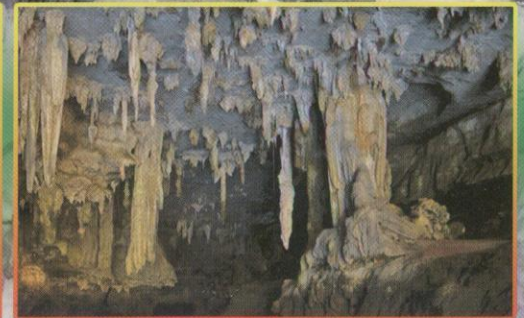

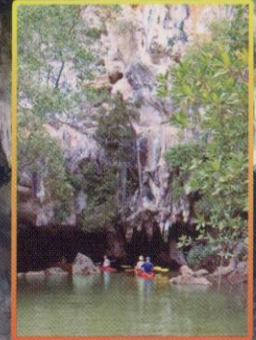

Firstly we will have a short visit in Phang Nga at "Suwannakuha Temple" (Wat Tham) where a pack of monkeys will be there to greet you before you shall meet with the big reclining Buddha.

Then, at "Bau Thau", enjoyable with fun kayaking in the midst of untamed mangrove forest heading to the two limestone caves, "Tham Lod" and "Tham Phi Hua To". Beside the beauty of the stalagmite-stalactite inside, there is also the evidence of human being lived in the area, the "ancient painting". To the last but not least is the "Diamond Cave" (Tham Petch) where its stone walls are glittering when the light has flashed on.

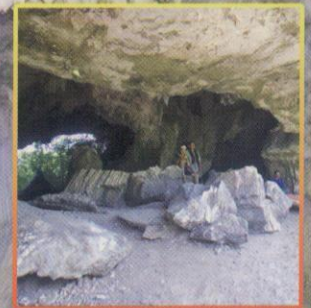

Tham Lod

Tham Lod is the limestone mountain that bestrides the canal. The cave is the tunnel that the boat can pass through which the length is about 150 meters. There is the beautiful stalactite - stalactite inside.

Tham Phi Hua To

Tham Phi Hua To is the medium limestone cave on the limestone mountain in the center of the water. It is surrounded by the mangrove forest. In the cave has the stalactite - stalactite and ancient painting about 2,000 - 3,000 years before history is that is interesting for studying of the human background before history.
